Summer Tiger Enrichment Camp ~ Remember to send back your registration form for this free camp being held at the K A Brett School this summer for students entering grades 1-6 in the fall of 2017 who will be attending the K A Brett School. It is a morning program on Monday-Wednesday from 9am to 1pm starting July 10th. Forms were sent home with students or extra forms are available in the main office.

News from the Gardens ~ This past week has brought more students out into the gardens! Our sixth grade Spanish students have been planning a Mexican food-themed bed to be planted next week! First graders finished up planting their sunflowers and kindergartners mulched garden aisles.

With the spring garden starting to produce, we will be offering a "school garden" salad bar at lunch next Tuesday, June 6th! Our own spinach, baby kale, radishes, and perhaps more, will be featured amongst the salad bar offerings. Yum!

Big news- We have received a generous grant from the Tamworth Foundation to build a greenhouse on-site here at KAB. We are in the planning process now, but stay tuned for info on family greenhouse build days during the summer!
